DAVID SCOTT - 25 YEARS

David Scott graduated from Vestaburg High School in 1988. During school there, he worked part time for several area farmers. After his graduation he went to work for a small machine shop in Vestaburg, MA Metals, and gained some valuable experience.

David started here in March 1989 through a referral from a GTD employee, his cousin, Brian Scott. He completed his tool and die maker apprenticeship in 1994. In 1999, David decided to accept an offer of employment from the former Tomco Tool & Die Company in Belding. However, when GTD purchased Tomco the end of 2003, he again became an employee of Greenville Tool & Die.

Most of David's career in the tool and die industry has been spent as a die maker and die leader. For a short period of time, not long ago, he spent time in our Engineering Dept. learning simulation. It was this experience that taught David that building dies is his first love and that is what he has been doing since.

David and his wife, Natalie, have six children: sons, Kaleb, Trenton, and Jacob; and daughters, Traitlynn, Ashlee, and Emily.

He loves the Out of Doors, hunting and fishing, is a polished and professional taxidermist, and for a number of years has enjoyed assisting his father each fall with his venison processing business.

In the past few years, his daughter, Ashlee, has become quite a race car driver. She has progressed up through the ranks and car classifications and is now sponsored in the IMCA Modified Class, race car circuit.

Thanks to David for his years of service and contributions to Greenville Tool & Die. Best wishes to you for continued success.
