JON GIGOWSKI RETIRES

Jon Gigowski officially retired from Greenville Tool & Die this past May after more than 29 years of service.

Born in Illinois, around the age of 2 his family moved to the Lakeview area. This is where Jon would be raised and attend school. Graduating from Lakeview High School, he played sports and had several part-time jobs. About 6 months after graduation, Jon joined the United States Marine Corp. He became a motor vehicle operator, and it is here that his superiors were impressed with his skills and promoted him to instructor. As instructor Jon led the first formal motor vehicle transport school in the armed services for the next 4 ½ years. After spending 1 ½ years overseas, and marrying his wife Cindi, Jon concluded 10 years of active duty by joining the active reserve and returned to Michigan.

On January 10, 1989, Jon took a job with the former Tomco Tool & Die Company in Belding. Jon had said that he did not have a clue what he was getting into, but had a family, needed a job, and was willing to accept the challenge of a new career. Jon and Cindi have three daughters; Cristal, Megan, and Jaimee.

Jon completed his apprenticeship program and chose to specialize in the machining area. After a few years he became CNC manager at Tomco. After Greenville Tool purchased Tomco in 2003, Jon continued his machining expertise here, particularly with our larger mills. In January of 2017 Jon became of Night shift Mill Forman.

Jon has been active in his community, coordinating the Marines Toys for Tots program. He also served on the GTD fundraising committee for several years. Jon is active in his church, plays the guitar, mandolin, and sings in a local Bluegrass band. Jon has a small engine repair certification and enjoys restoring old cars. In fact, Jon restored a 1929 Ford Model A Tudor that his father Albert had purchased in the 1960's for $100 and gave to Jon in 2003. Jon has restored this vehicle to "mint" condition.

Jon, thank you for your many years of service to Greenville Tool & Die, and more importantly thank you for your many years of serving our country in the Marines.

Greenville's Back to School

Branden Luscher, Rich Ring, Mandy Christian, and Connor Somerfield worked the booth during Greenville Public School's 3rd Annual Block Party at Legacy Field.

Vendors included local organizations, clubs, businesses, civic and non-profit groups, and GPS programs.

Even some princesses came to party. Games, activities, food & special give-a-ways were available free of charge for all attendees.

Restaurants provided a "Taste of Greenville" sampling. Exciting vehicles from fire engine to farm tractors offered a Touch-A-Truck demonstration.

While passing out notebooks, folders, pencils, and glue sticks, our Human Resource Director, Rich Ring, used the opportunity to spark interest in the tool & die trade.

GTD gave away school supplies to nearly five hundred students who stopped in to see us. It was wonderful to witness the community come together for such a great event!

REMEMBER WHEN

In this picture from the September 1988 Toolbits, GTD retiree Karen Pierantoni flaunts one of five new PC's we envisioned would eventually handle most of our accounting functions, purchasing, personnel records, vendor information and inventory, as well as expand our Cad/Cam capabilities. Today GTD has 27 workstations in engineering, roughly 34 out in the shop, and 14 administrative offices containing PC's' all with dual screens.
